HR AND EMPLOYEE MANAGEMENT POLICY

Document No.	PP-HR-001 (Proposal)	Version	1.0 (Proposal)
Responsible	HR/Sales/Marketing Manager	Approval	CEO, then Owner
Review cycle	Every 12 months	Related documents	PP-SOP-001; PP-IT-001

1. Purpose & Fair Treatment

• Provide fair, consistent, respectful, and documented employee management practices. Apply employment decisions consistently and in line with applicable Pakistani law and approved company policy.

• Use PP-SOP-001 for working hours, attendance, leave, conduct, reporting lines, discipline, and escalation; use PP-IT-001 for employee access, devices, and information security.

2. Recruitment & Selection

• Define each vacancy with an approved job description, reporting line, essential duties, required skills, work schedule, and selection criteria before advertising or interviewing.

• Use job-related criteria and consistent interview questions. Do not discriminate unlawfully or make hiring decisions based on irrelevant personal characteristics. Record selection reasons and disclose conflicts of interest, including close relationships with applicants.

• Only authorized management may approve offers, compensation, and hiring commitments. Do not promise employment terms that have not been approved.

3. Onboarding & Employee Records

• Before or at joining, provide the job description, reporting line, work schedule, applicable policies, safety instructions, attendance/leave process, confidentiality expectations, and role-specific training.

• Collect only necessary employment and payroll information and store it in access-restricted company records. Limit access to authorized management and Finance/HR personnel with a legitimate need.

• Provide role-appropriate access to systems and premises. IT access must follow PP-IT-001; promptly request access changes when duties change or employment ends.

4. Attendance, Leave & Work Arrangements

• Follow PP-SOP-001 for attendance, office hours, floor shifts, leave requests, punctuality, and absence reporting. Current schedules remain: admin 10:00–18:00 Monday to Saturday; floor shifts 11:00–19:00 and 18:00–02:00; gaming zone 12:00–02:00 daily.

• Managers must record attendance and leave decisions consistently, protect medical or other sensitive details, and communicate approvals or denials clearly. Do not change schedules or approve exceptions outside delegated authority.

5. Performance, Training & Development

• Set role-specific objectives at onboarding and review progress regularly using documented, job-related evidence.

• Proposed review cadence: a check-in during the first month, then quarterly performance reviews. Discuss results, strengths, conduct, support needs, training, and agreed objectives.

• Offer appropriate coaching and training. If performance falls short, explain the gap, agree measurable improvement actions and a reasonable review date, document support offered, and follow up consistently. Disciplinary action must follow PP-SOP-001 and applicable law.

6. Equal Opportunity, Respect & Grievances

• Maintain a workplace free from harassment, bullying, discrimination, threats, and retaliation. Employees should be treated with dignity and given a fair opportunity to raise concerns.

• Employees may raise grievances with their line manager or HR/Sales/Marketing Manager. If the concern involves that person, escalate to the CEO; if it involves the CEO, report directly to the Owner.

• Handle complaints discreetly, fairly, and promptly. Record the concern, steps taken, findings, and actions while limiting disclosure to those who need to know. Protect employees from retaliation for good-faith reporting.

7. Resignation, Exit & Final Administration

• Employees should submit resignation in writing to their manager, following the applicable contract and legal notice requirements. Management should acknowledge receipt and confirm the next steps in writing.

• Prepare a handover of duties, bookings, files, equipment, keys, and outstanding work. Finance should review final dues and outstanding advances according to applicable law and company records.

• On or before the authorized end date, retrieve company property, revoke physical and digital access, and preserve business records in line with PP-IT-001. Conduct an exit discussion where appropriate and record practical feedback.

8. Responsibilities, Review & Approval

• Managers are responsible for consistent application of this policy. The HR/Sales/Marketing Manager coordinates employee administration; the Finance Director handles payroll and financial records within assigned authority; department heads provide role-specific supervision.

• Review every 12 months or sooner when legal or operational changes require it. The CEO reviews and recommends policy changes, followed by approval from the Owner.

Verification note: PP-HR-001 and version 1.0 are proposed identifiers. Confirm employment terms, notice periods, leave entitlements, and procedures against applicable Pakistani law before approval.
